

About the Princess Margaret Cancer Centre

The Princess Margaret combines the clinical excellence of the Princess Margaret Cancer Centre with the research expertise of The Campbell Family Cancer Research Institute to deliver breakthrough research, exemplary teaching and compassionate care.

A global leader in the fight against cancer, The Princess Margaret is leading the way in the creation and implementation of the new gold standard in cancer care: Personalized Cancer Medicine.

The new discoveries and innovative cancer therapies that are changing cancer care for patients globally are happening right here in Canada, at The Princess Margaret where we will CONQUER CANCER IN OUR LIFETIME.

The Princess Margaret is...

- the world leader in cancer stem cell research
- a world leader in image-guided therapeutics
- a world leader in lung cancer research and treatment
- a world leader in patient survivorship program development
- an emerging leader in breast cancer research and discovery

The Princess Margaret offers comprehensive cancer care in Pediatrics and across 13 disease sites:

- Breast
- Lung
- Gastrointestinal
- Gynecologic
- Genitourinary
- Head and Neck
- Central Nervous System
- Lymphoma
- Sarcoma
- Leukemia
- Eye
- Endocrine
- Skin

2010-11 By the Numbers:

PMH treats over 200 types of cancer through surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, psychosocial and palliative care.

Outpatient Clinic Visits:	368,240	Cancer Surgeries:	6,304
Chemotherapy Treatments:	30,881	Clinical Trial Subjects:	1,510
New Cancer patients:	18,585	Stem Cell Transplants:	255
Courses of Radiation:	9,612	Active Beds in Service:	218

The Princess Margaret Cancer Centre is a member of the University Health Network, which also includes Toronto General Hospital, Toronto Western Hospital and Toronto Rehabilitation Institute. All are research hospitals affiliated with the University of Toronto. For more information, go to www.uhn.ca.

